

Handwritten text, mostly illegible due to extreme fading and bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text appears to be organized into several paragraphs, with some lines being more distinct than others. The handwriting is cursive and somewhat slanted.

Vertical text or signature in the bottom right corner, possibly a date or a name, also heavily faded.