CLOSING ADDRESS
GIVEN BY MR. YOSHIYA IKEDA
MANAGING DIRECTOR OF TOKYO INTERNATIONAL CENTER, ICHIGAYA, JICA

Mr. Jiro OHSHIRO, Director General of the Institute of Public Administration, National Personnel Authority, Mr. Tatsuo Sasagawa, Managing Director of Japan Institute of Personnel Administration, Honorable Guests, Dear Participants, Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have the honour and pleasure to say a few words on behalf of Japan International Cooperation Agency on this occasion of the closing ceremony of the Group Training Course in National Government Administration in 1989.

First of all, I would like to extend heartfelt congratulations to all of you participants on your successful completion of the course. At the same time, I take this opportunity to express deep gratitude to the staff of the Institute of Public Administration and all the other organization concerned for their kind cooperation and efforts to make the course successful.

As you are aware, this course has been organized by the Government of Japan as part of its technical cooperation programme. The main purposes were to introduce the participants to modern public administration mainly of Japan and to exchange information and views of the actual state of public administration in the participating countries in order to ultimately contribute to the social and economic development of the respective countries. It was also expected that the course would help promote cooperation and friendship among the participating countries including Japan. I am firmly convinced now that the objectives of the course have been fully accomplished. It is our sincere hope that you will make best use of what you have gained in Japan, when you resume your duties in your countries.

JICA has many types of cooperation. Training programme is just one of them. We hope that the relationship between you participants and JICA would be further strengthened in the future cooperation activities between Japan and your respective countries.

To conclude, I wish each one of you participants a pleasant trip to your home country and every success in your career.

Thank you.

CONGRATULATION ADDRESS
GIVEN BY MR JIRO OSHIRO, DIRECTOR GENERAL, INSTITUTE OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
NATIONAL PERSONNEL AUTHORITY

Honorable Guests,
Dear Participants,
Ladies and Gentlemen:

It is my great pleasure and honor to say a few words of congratulations on the occasion of the closing ceremony for the 22nd Group Training Course in National Government Administration. On behalf of the Government of Japan, I would like to take this opportunity to extend our heartfelt congratulations to all the participants on successful completion of this course.

Congratulations, dear participants. I am sure all of you have achieved remarkable success and that your success is really the result of a lot of hard work, to which I'll pay my heartiest respects. Owing to your efforts, our program of this year seems to be a success, too. So we can expect to continue with this kind of training programs for your successors in the following years.

Valuable experiences and important information you have acquired through this course will be surely useful for your future progress, and besides, your contacts with foreign administrators from different countries would enable you to deepen mutual understandings and to promote international cooperation. I do hope hereafter you will contribute largely to development and prosperity of your country by playing an important role as a leading administrator of your government.

Now, looking back over the period of this course, I can't imagine how the time went by so quickly. It hardly seems that six weeks have passed already. Perhaps the most meaningful thing to say during this period is that six weeks ago you came as foreign guests and now you are leaving as intimate friends. I think friendly relations and mutual understandings are important steps to international cooperation, which can lead to the answer to various important problems facing the world now.

In closing my address, I heartily wish you good health and every success.

Thank you very much.
