

Figure 13-36: Waste disposal site is dominated by a ruderal community consisting of Silybum marianum (braunish) and Urtica pilulifera (green)

Figure 13-37: Silybum marianum, which is a nitrophillous species, occupies large area around waste disposal site