

UNITED NATIONS
ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COMMISSION FOR ASIA AND THE PACIFIC (UNESCAP)

Questionnaire on Population and Housing Censuses

UNESCAP Statistics Division is conducting a survey on population and housing censuses with special emphasis on the census skills available in national statistical (or census) offices in the UNESCAP region. The main objective of this survey is to assess country needs for technical assistance and the availability of census skills and expertise to be shared among countries through the regional census programme. For background information, questions on key elements of the previous and planned censuses are also included. With the aim of reducing the response burden, we have pre-filled certain responses for some countries with information available here at UNESCAP; please subject these responses to thorough checking.

The results of the survey will be used primarily to facilitate sharing of the expertise among countries in the region in support of their census operations during the 2010 census round. The results will also be used to focus UNESCAP census activities on areas where Governments need assistance and where UNESCAP can most effectively assist them. To this end, the information collected through the survey will be analysed, published and disseminated to various stakeholders at national, regional and international levels.

You are required to fill out the e-questionnaire using your computer. We would appreciate your cooperation in answering all the questions to the best of your knowledge and in consultation with your census partners.

The completed questionnaire should be returned by email, no later than 30 April 2005, to Mr. Andrew J. Flatt, Director, Statistics Division, UNESCAP, United Nations Building, Rajadamnern Nok Avenue, Bangkok 10200, Thailand (Tel: +662 2881234; Fax: +662 2881082 ; Email: stat.unescap@un.org)

3. Scope of the census (mark as applicable)

Population: Housing:

4. Legislation

Is any legislation governing the conduct of censuses (e.g. census act, statistics act, data protection law) available? Yes No

If yes, specify the title of the legislation and the year of adoption:

Census act

5. Pilot survey

Was a pilot survey organized before the census? Yes No

6. Post-enumeration survey (PES)

Was a PES organized after the census? Yes No

7. Use of technologies in census operations

A. Census management

Have you used any project management software? Yes No

If yes, please indicate which software package, and whether this was a self-developed system

Have you used any computer system for the monitoring of the quality of all census operations?

Yes No

If yes, please indicate which software package, and whether this was a self-developed system

Software package

B. Data entry/capture

What method of data entry/capture was used? (Mark all applicable)

Keyboard

OMR

OCR/ICR

Internet

Other, please specify

Software used for data entry/capture (Mark all applicable)

- Commercial product (e.g., MS Access, SQL Server, Sybase or Oracle), please specify:
 Non-commercial or free package, please specify (e.g., US Census Bureau CSPro, IMPS Centry, or United Nations PC-Entry):
 Self-developed application, please specify (e.g., the software package, the language in which it has been prepared, etc.):

Was there any verification of double entry? Yes No

If so, what percentage of the data was keyed twice: ___% (approximately)

Have you used real-time error control during the data capture (e.g.: variable range checks, or check on the internal consistency of household composition)? Yes No

Duration of the entire data entry/capture: ___ months

C. Data processing

Coding of data (Mark all applicable)

- Manual coding using code books
 Computer-assisted coding
 Automatic coding
If automatic or computer-assisted coding was applied, which software was used?
 Self-developed, please specify: ___
 Obtained from elsewhere, please specify: ___
 Computer package, please specify: ___
 Other, please specify: ___

Was there any computer-supported editing of the raw data files? Yes No

If yes, did any computer-supported editing include automatic imputation? Yes No

If yes, please specify the software used:

Were statistics about imputation rate by variable generated? Yes No

What software was used to set up a database for microdata? (Mark all applicable)

- High-level (Oracle, SQL Server, etc), please specify: ___
 PC-based (MS Access, Paradox, etc), please specify: ___
 Statistical (SPSS system file, etc), please specify: ___
 Demographic (REDATAM, etc), please specify: ___
 Other, please specify: ___
 None

D. Cartography/ Mapping

Use of GIS technology Yes No
Use of digital maps Yes No
If yes, who provided the digital maps? Self Others
Use of GPS technology Yes No
Use of other digital technology (e.g., digitized dwelling registers, etc.), please specify:

8. Publication and dissemination

When were the preliminary data released? (mm/yyyy) July 1998

When were the final results released? (mm/yyyy) July 1999

In the 2004 questionnaire at the question "How long did it take you to process and tabulate the results?" you answered:

STATISTICS LAW

Chapter I

GENERAL PROVISION

Article 1 This Law governs all matters relating to collection, processing, compilation, analysis, publication and dissemination of statistical data and pertains to the whole Kingdom of Cambodia.

Article 2 The technical terms used in this Law shall have the following meaning:

- a. “Statistics” are data obtained by collecting, processing, compiling, analyzing, publishing and disseminating results, gathered from respondents through statistical collections or from administrative data sources.
- b. “National Statistics System” is integrated statistics data at national and local level and infrastructure, including all official statistical data and national statistical programs; statistical organizations and statistical units within ministries and institutions of the Royal Government; as well as their statistical staff and other infrastructure.
- c. “Basic statistics” are official economic, environment and socio-demographic statistics that are cross sectoral in nature, national and sub-national, that are required by the Royal Government for policy and program formulation and evaluation, as well as for use by the wider Cambodian and international communities.
- d. “Sectoral statistics” are statistics collected by ministries or institutions of the Royal Government for their internal needs and reporting purposes.
- e. A “census” is a statistical collection of data on individuals, households, establishments or other organizational units where all units in the population are enumerated .
- f. A “survey” is a scientific statistical collection of data on individuals, households, establishments or other organizational units where only a sample of units in the population are enumerated .
- g. A “ statistical officer” is an employee of the Royal Government who has the authority to engage in official statistical activities.

- h. A “respondent” is an individual, household, company, establishment, government or non- government institution, or other organization, that has been selected in a census or a survey.
- i. Data are information in the form of numbers.
- j. “Designated official statistics” are statistics produced by Government organizations that are determined by the Royal Government to meet the statistical information requirements of policy-makers in formulating and evaluating economic and social policies and programs in addressing the socio-economic development and welfare of the nation, as well as the requirements of decision-makers and researchers in the wider Cambodian and international communities.

Chapter II

PRINCIPLES AND DIRECTIONS

Article Statistical development is based on the principles of accuracy independence, objectivity, reliability, relevance and timeliness.

Article 4 Statistical activities shall be guided by the following objectives :

- a. Supporting the statistical data requirements of Royal Government policy-makers in formulating and evaluating economic and social policies and programs, in addressing the socio-economic development and welfare of the nation, as well as the requirements of decision-makers and researchers in the wider Cambodian and international communities.
- b. Facilitating the development of an effective and efficient National Statistical System.
- c. Enhancing public awareness of the importance of the role and function of statistics in national development programs.
- d. Encouraging the development of methodology and technology in statistical activities.

Chapter III

STATISTICAL DATA COLLECTION

Article 5 Statistical data are collected by:

- a. Conducting censuses.
- b. Conducting surveys.
- c. Accessing government and non-government administrative data sources.

Article 6 Censuses as referred to in Article 5 (a) shall be conducted at least once every ten years . There are three categories of census.

- a. Population census.
- b. Agricultural census.
- c. Establishment census.

These censuses shall be conducted by the National Institute of Statistics of the Ministry of Planning in cooperation with relevant institutions.

Article 7 The Royal Government shall issue a Sub-Decree specifying the dates for conducting each of the three censuses within the ten-year period and may change the dates where it deems it necessary to do so.

Article 8 Intercensal surveys shall be conducted between censuses to facilitate annual updates of the benchmark census data in order to compile accurate and reliable economic and social statistics that meet the needs of government policy makers and other users.

Article 9 Sample Surveys, as referred to in Article 5(b), may be conducted periodically in order to produce accurate and reliable basic national statistics, as well as on an ad hoc basis in order to address any urgent statistical data needs of the Royal Government. For the purposes of conducting economic surveys, the National Institute of Statistics of the Ministry of Planning will establish a register of businesses or population frame, to be updated and maintained on an annual basis.

Article 10 Statistics produced from administrative data sources, as referred to in Article 5 (c), shall be compiled using data recorded on administrative documents, forms and other records sourced from both Royal Government and non-government organizations. For the purposes of compiling statistics from administrative data sources, the National Institute of Statistics of the Ministry of Planning will establish a directory of administrative and statistical data sources, to be updated and maintained on an annual basis.

Article 11 In the context of this Law, the National Institute of Statistics of the Ministry of Planning is responsible for :

- a. Collecting, processing, compiling, analyzing, publishing and disseminating basic data by conducting censuses and surveys, and utilizing administrative data sources.
- b. Compiling national accounts and price indexes, as well as economic, environment and socio-demographic indicators.

Article 12 Ministries and institutions of the Royal Government shall collect sectoral data either independently or in cooperation with the National Institute of Statistics of the Ministry of Planning by:

- a. Conducting surveys.
- b. Collection of statistical data on administrative records.

Chapter IV

COORDINATION AND COOPERATION

Article 13 The National Institute of Statistics, under the Ministry of Planning, shall be responsible for making official statistical policies in establishing an integrated National Statistical System, encompassing all designated official statistics and statistical organizational units within ministries and institutions. The Royal Government shall issue a Sub-Decree on the operation of the National Statistical System and designated official statistics.

Article 14 In these tasks, the National Institute of Statistics of the Ministry of Planning shall establish:

- a. Coordination in activities of statistical development, including training, with the ministries and institutions of the Royal Government, and the private sector, at the national and sub-national level.

- b. Cooperative arrangements in statistical activities with international organizations, other national statistical offices, and other private institutions in accordance with the prevailing legislation.
- c. National statistical standards pertaining to classifications, concepts, definitions and statistical units, so as to avoid confusion on the part of data users and any duplication of official statistical data on the part of data producers.

Article 15 A "Statistics Advisory Council" shall be established to provide advice to the Ministry of Planning in facilitating the development of the National Statistical System . The composition, role and tasks of the Statistics Advisory Council shall be determined by Sub-Decree.

Article 16 A "Statistics Coordination Committee" shall be established to assist the National Institute of Statistics of the Ministry of Planning in the technical coordination of the official statistics of the Royal Government. The composition, role and tasks of the Statistics Coordination Committee shall be determined by Sub-Decree.

Chapter V
