State as of 1 January 2006

PREFACE

By launching the publication "Municipalities of Serbia, 2006", the Statistical Office of the Republic of Serbia carries on to publish annually the complex statistical data on municipalities. The decision to establish a publication that comprises the data of various fields of social and economic development of Serbian municipalities resulted from our appreciation of the social requirements for an overall insight of the status and developments of certain municipalities.

The publication "Municipalities of Serbia, 2006", just as the previous volumes of the series, features about 1000 data for each municipality. The contents, coverage and presentations make this volume actually a complete yearbook of municipalities that is, regarding the distribution of contents, an elaboration of the Statistical Yearbook of Serbia, 2006.

In presenting the data we took into account the present organization of the Republic of Serbia and the respective bodies. Therefore, the municipalities are divided into districts pursuant to the Act on ministries and their (external) organizations, which the Government of the Republic of Serbia passed on 29 January 1992 (Official gazette of RS, no. 3/92 and 36/92).

A wider selection of the data presented by municipalities, which this publication could not possibly comprise, could be found in certain volumes of the Office edition "Municipal statistics", as well as in the volumes of the Bulletin that are found summarized at the end of the publication. In the files of the Statistical Office of the Republic of Serbia, in Belgrade and also in the regional organizational units (departments, divisions, sections), more detailed statistical data are stored, which were not published and are available to the interested clients. The data are offered in classic printed form and in electronic form (floppy, CD).

Apart from the data by the Statistical Office of the Republic of Serbia, the publication features the data provided by the Ministry of Interior of the Republic of Serbia, the National Bank of Serbia - the Solvency Center, the Geodetic Office of the Republic of Serbia, the National Employment Service and the Public Health Institute of Serbia.

In order to provide the insight into the data of this publication for the largest number of users, the Statistical Office of the Republic of Serbia edited also a separate publication, the Municipalities of Serbia, 2006, in English.

Municipalities of Serbia, 2006: Main principles of editing

Distribution of material

The statistical material in this publication was presented following basically the same sequence as in the Statistical Yearbook of Serbia. Certain chapters of the Yearbook were excluded here: land and climate, national accounts, external trade, savings and credits and individual.

Principles of presentation

The publication includes only the basic data of the large volume statistics. The data were selected in accordance with the principles of creating the publication of this kind. Although it was initially envisaged to comprise data in multi-year series, for technical reasons the publication is limited to the most recent data for a year. In the end we offered information about the source of the respective data for the previous period, which provide users with the opportunity to create data series on their own.

The municipalities were divided here into 29 districts, pursuant to the Act on ministries and their (external) organizations, which was passed by the Government of the republic of Serbia on 29 January 1992 (Official gazette of RS, no 3/92 and 36/92). The municipalities of the City of Belgrade were presented as a separate group. In the last four tables the municipalities were divided within a region into three groups: underdeveloped, extremely undeveloped and other municipalities. The municipalities were classified into these three groups pursuant to the Act on underdeveloped regions of the Republic of Serbia for the period up to 2005 (Official gazette of RS, number 53/95).

Methodological explanations

In a separate chapter of the publication we gave the most required methodological explanations, prepared for each chapter separately. For the purpose of a good layout they were divided in parts: sources and methods of data collecting, data coverage and definitions. The Statistical Office of Serbia and Montenegro published the detailed methodological explanations for each individual survey in the volumes of "Methodological papers".

Data sources

The statistical data presented here are the results of regular statistical reporting, censuses (population census) and the surveys of statistical programs of interests for the country and especially for the Republic of Serbia.

The publication offers the statistical data provided by the following institutions: the National Bank of Serbia - the Solvency Center, the Geodetic Office of the Republic of Serbia, the National Employment Service and the Public Health Institute of Serbia. In the tables containing these data we gave the full titles of the data sources.

Coverage

The data coverage, whole and partial, is explained in the methodological papers. The data are fully comparable by municipalities and the years of production (in the cases where the data for several years are given). However due to different methodological basis, the data presented in various tables are not completely comparable.

Technical presentations

As a rule, all the municipalities were comprised by table presentations. In certain fields, where the phenomena observed are not characteristic of all municipalities, those municipalities not featuring the phenomena observed are excluded from the presentation. The presentation of data on municipalities is the most complete in the case of the City of Belgrade,

Due to known reasons, our Office cannot collect and process the data for Kosovo and Metohia. Therefore the data for the Republic of Serbia are to be regarded as the sum of relative data for the central Serbia and Vojvodina.

¹⁾ Average number of overnight stays is calculated by dividing number of overnight stays by number of tourists. As tourists are registered in each place where they stay, in case of changing place we have repeated data, i.e. duplicating. Therefore, average number of overnight stays, calculated in this way, is probably smaller than real one.

²⁾ Correction of national income has been made by two-year average of national income of agriculture for 2004 and 2005 (VAT not included)

METHODOLOGICAL EXPLANATIONS

GENERAL INFORMATION

Sources and methods of data collection

The data on the total area of the Republic of Serbia, on the areas of the Autonomous Province of Vojvodina and the Autonomous Province of Kosovo and Metohia were taken over from the Federal geodetic office as of 1953. The Geodetic Office of the Republic of Serbia provided the data on the area of the municipalities as of 1 January 2006. Since the new cadastre measurements are in process, the data on the total area of the Republic and the Provinces should be considered as provisional. The data on the area of the most of municipalities are final; therefore the discrepancy exists between the sum of the municipal areas and the total area. The data on the number of cadastre municipalities were also taken over from the Geodetic Office of the Republic of Serbia.

The data on population present the estimated population in the mid-year (30 June 2005). The population estimations for 2005 were derived according to the population estimation of 1 January 2005 and the data on the natural mechanical migrations in 2005. The mechanical component of migrations covers the internal (domestic) migrations only.

SOCIAL SYSTEM

ELECTIONS AND COMPOSITIONS OF MUNICIPAL AND CITY/TOWN ASSEMBLIES

Sources and methods of data collection

The data on the results of the local government elections, i.e. the elections for the delegates to municipal and city/town assemblies were obtained from the municipal and city/town electoral boards.

The data were collected through summarized reports for the level of municipality, i.e. city/town.

Coverage

The election results for 165 municipalities (two of which are cities: Novi Sad and Kragujevac) were considered. 13 municipalities had non-regular elections: seven municipalities in 2002 and six municipalities in 2003. In the rest of 152 municipalities the elections were held on 19 September 2004.

Definitions

Having changed the socio-economic and political establishment, introducing multi-party system, as provided by the changed Constitution, the political system has also been changed. The candidates for delegates are pronounced by political parties or coalitions of parties, i.e. civil groups. The municipal and city/town assemblies are single-house institutions and the mandate of delegates lasts four years.

These elections were the first local elections to introduce the proportional system, as envisaged by the Act on local elections, passed in 2002.

POPULATION

Sources and methods of data collection

The data on the population and households in 1921, 1931, 1948, 1953, 1961, 1971, 1981, 1991 and 2002 were obtained from the respective censuses.

The population number in mid-year (as of 30 June) is estimated on the basis of the data of population census, the data on the population increase and (from 1989 on) the data on internal migrations.

Pursuant to the data of the last, 2002 population census we revised the estimated number of population in mid-year for the census interval 1991-2002. Moreover we revised the internal migrations from 2002 on.

The data on births, deaths and contracted marriages are provided by registrars and the data on the marriages dissolved (divorces) by the courts of respective jurisdiction.

Coverage

The statistics of births cover all births (live and dead births) in the respective year. The statistics of deaths covers all death cases. The statistics of contracted marriages cover the marriages that have been legally contracted, i.e. entered into the register of marriages. The statistics of dissolved marriages cover the irrevocably dissolved / divorced marriages, null and void made marriages.

According to the legal provisions on registers, we enter births, deaths and marriage contracts into the registers kept for the region where the respective events took place, regardless the fact whether this is the place of residence of the concerning parties. In processing the data are further re-classified according to place of residence and this complies with the census conception of constant population.

Definitions

Population. In post-war censuses, the population was registered and the output presented according to the conception of constant population, i.e. respondents were to be registered at their usual places of residence, even if in the time of census execution they were absent for any reason (travel, education, fieldwork, work abroad, military service, medical treatment, imprisonment, etc.). The households provided the data for these respondents. The data on each respondent were included in the census output relative to the place of their usual residence, regardless the fact they were present there or not.

Pursuant to international recommendations, by the 2002 census in constant population we included, apart from domestic population, also our citizens that worked, i.e. stayed abroad for a year or less, as well as the foreign citizens that worked here or stayed as family members for more than a year. In Table 3.1, the final data on the number of population as in censuses of 1991 and 2002 are comparable, since by special processing of the 1991 census data we excluded the Yugoslav citizens who worked or stayed abroad for more than a year.

The 2002 census did not cover the territory of the AP Kosovo and Metohia.

The censuses of 1981, 1991 and 2002 are specific in relation to the other post-war censuses, due to the fact the workers and other active persons not working in the place of their residence were regarded in a different way. Namely, pursuant to the methodological guidelines for the censuses of 1948, 1953, 1961 and 1971, the workers and other active persons (e.g. craftsmen in their own shops) who did not work in the usual place of residence of their families (households) and who lived separated from their families (households) – they were registered as permanent residents of the places where they worked, while by the censuses of 1981, 1991 and 2002 these categories were registered as permanent residents of the places where their families (households) stayed, regardless the fact whether they commuted (or not) daily from the place where they worked to the place where their families (households) permanently stayed.

However, the censuses of 1921 and 1931 were executed pursuant to the conception of present population, i.e. everyone was registered in the place where appeared at the time of census, no matter whether it was their usual place of residence.

National and ethnic affiliation. As in the previous post-war censuses, the data on the national composition of the population in the 2002 census were collected according to free declaration of the respondents. Pursuant to Article 45, the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, the citizens were granted full freedom to declare their national affiliation. Further, the citizens are free not to be declared on the issue and this was to be registered as 'not declared'.

For the children under the age of 15, the reply was provided by a parent, an adopter parent or a guardian.

Age. In the census data and vital statistics tables, the population was categorized by age i.e. (complete) living years. Each age group relates to the complete years of age, e.g. the age group 0 – 4 comprises the children from the birth to the completed fifth year.

According to the data of age, several important population sub-sets are derived: pre-school children (under 7, i.e. 0 – 6 years of age), primary school /compulsory education/ children (7-14 years of age), working age population (between the age of 15 to 64), female fertile population (15 – 49).

Educational attainment. As in the previous census, the 2002 census provided the data referring to the educational attainment, i.e. the school completed that presents the educational attainment. The responds to this issue were not collected from pre-school children and primary school children. The persons who had not completed primary school gave the data on the schooling years completed.

The data are presented in tables for the population aged 15 and over. The comparability with the 1991 census data was maintained, however the census 2002 features more detailed data regarding secondary education that covers: two-year and three-year technical schools, high-schools, four and five-study-year technical schools, secondary vocational education and training and the schools of post-secondary specialization. In coding the educational attainment, we applied the International Standard Classification of Education (ISCED 1997).

Marital status. The data on marital status are provided for the population aged 15 and over. Just as before, the 2002 census data on marital status refers to the actual legal status (legal marital status) and not to the factual status of families. Namely, the persons living in informal, extra-marital communities provided the data on the legal marital status before these communities were established.

Active population anticipates the persons aged 15 and over, with occupation, as well as the unemployed persons seeking employment and the persons on leave for military service (active population without occupation). Under the term 'occupation' we anticipate the execution of certain jobs in order to provide for life support.

The persons acquiring (personal) income are those not included in the set of active population, however with sustenance provided from regular receipts, e.g. pension (old-age, disablement, family pensions), real estate related earnings (lease of flat, house, land, shop, etc.) and other personal income (disablement and welfare subsidies, family/children allowances, scholarships, etc.).

Supported population anticipates the persons without personal income of any kind, or with unsubstantial resources and therefore supported by parents, relatives or other persons, including legal persons.

Persons working abroad are the persons that for less than a year work abroad, for foreign employer or independently. These persons provided no data on their occupation abroad or on the contingent occupation before leaving the home country and they may not be categorized by certain socioeconomic parameters (occupation, socioeconomic status, etc.).

Members of families of persons working abroad are those persons who do not work abroad, however they stay there for less than a year as members of the families of persons working abroad.

Agricultural population is consisted of the persons who are by occupation: (qualified) workers in agriculture, fishing and forestry (market producers), farmers (producers for own needs) and other workers employed in agriculture, fishing, etc., pursuant to the International Standard Classification of Occupations, ISCO-88. Also included are the persons supported by this category.

Active agricultural population anticipates the persons aged 15 and over, with the occupations above mentioned, who are employed or individually engaged (at their own, family or other holdings) and who in this way provide for living support.

Individual agricultural workers (farmers) are persons aged 15 and over, who individually work at their own or other agricultural holdings.

Supported agricultural population comprises the persons with no personal income or with not sufficient income, who are therefore supported by persons with agricultural occupation.

Household is every family or other community of persons who live together and jointly spend their income for living support (dwelling, food, etc.), regardless the fact whether all the members permanently stay at the place where the household is situated or some members stay at some other place, or abroad, due to work, education or other reasons.

Family is a close family community, consisted of a married couple or parents (single or both) and their children. Extra-marital communities (with or without children) are also considered as families.

Live born is a child that showed the signs of life (breathing and heart beat) after birth.

Stillborn is a child born showing no life signs, provided that pregnancy lasted 28 weeks minimum.

Death causes. The data on death causes are classified according to the International classification of diseases, injuries and death causes (Revision 10, in use since 1997).

EMPLOYMENT

Sources and methods of data collection

The data on the employed in enterprises, cooperatives, institutions and organizations were collected on the basis of a regular survey, i.e. the Semiannual report on the employed and their salaries and wages (RAD-1P) and through the Survey supplementary to the semiannual report on the employed and their salaries and wages, which provided the data on the number of employed in small-size enterprises (up to 50 employed) that were not covered by regular semiannual survey.

The data on private entrepreneurs and the persons individually running business and on their employees were collected through the regular semiannual survey, RAD-15, provided by the Health Insurance Office of the Republic of Serbia.

The annual average was calculated as the arithmetical mean value of the number of the employed persons as of 31 March and of 30 September.

The data on employment and unemployed persons are obtained from the National Employment Service.

Coverage

The semiannual survey of employment and salaries and wages covers the enterprises and their composite units, institutions, cooperatives and other organizations of all ownership types. The survey does not cover: foreign citizens employed in the Republic of Serbia, the citizens of the Republic of Serbia employed with international representation offices in the Republic of Serbia, the employed that are doing military service, the employed on non-paid leave for one or several years, active military officers and civilians employed with the Army and the employees of the interior bodies. In executing semiannual reporting, organization - territory principle of observation is implemented, i.e. municipality is regarded as basic territorial unit. Therefore, as a reporting unit we anticipate every enterprise or institution with their business units at the territory of the municipality where the head office is seated and these units are engaged in the same principal activity. The business units with the registered main or principal activity other than of the head office enterprise or institution are considered as separate reporting units, even though they are situated on the territory of the municipality where the head office of the respective enterprise / institution is seated.

Also, as a separate reporting unit we consider any business unit that is situated out of the municipality where the head office of the corporate enterprise or institution is found.

The semiannual survey on private entrepreneurs, persons that individually run business and their employees, covers only the employed persons that are registered with the Health insurance office of the Republic of Serbia.

The data on unemployed persons cover only those persons registered with the National Employment Service.

Definitions

The term 'employed' cover all the persons that have signed employment contract with enterprises or institutions (management is also included here), or with private entrepreneurs, regardless the fact whether permanent or casual employment was contracted and whether these are full-time or part-time jobs.

The term 'employed' does not cover households' members rendering assistance at the holding, shop or enterprise run by another household member, or the persons serving punishments and casually hired cooperatives.

NATIONAL INCOME

Sources and methods of data collection

The estimates of national income by municipalities are based on the conception of 'material production' and are derived according to defined methodology, applying territorial principle and the principle of 'establishment activity'. For all enterprises (including so called 'socially' owned enterprises and cooperatives as well) the data are collected, directly or indirectly, by the Complex annual survey (KGI-01), pursuant to annual financial reports and other accounting records of enterprises. Regarding non-corporate business (private agricultural holdings and sole-proprietorships), the calculations are carried out according to special surveys, which are partly based on estimations.

Coverage

The calculations for each municipality were made pursuant to the principle of 'establishment activity' and territory and these calculations covered, including private agricultural holdings and sole-proprietorships as well, all activities of the production of material goods and industrial (productive) services that were executed at the territory of the respective municipality, regardless where the head office of the reporting unit was seated.

Definitions

National income stands for a new created value in the year and is presented according to the sectors of ownership and activities.

National income per capita stands for the ratio of overall income and the population number of the respective municipality and it is used as a basic indicator of the municipality development level.

IMPORTANT NOTES:

- For methodological purposes, the national income for 2005 was calculated excluding VAT and it is not comparable with previous years' data.

- Pursuant to international recommendations the calculations of macroeconomic aggregates according to the concept of material production is given up and therefore the last available data on national income are relative to 2005.

AGRICULTURE

CROP PRODUCTION

Sources and methods of data collection

The data on agricultural enterprises and cooperatives are collected through regular annual surveys of the land sown in spring, PO-22, the returns of early crops, PO-32 and the returns of late crops, PO-33. The data are provided according to accounting and other records. The data on individual holdings are obtained from statistical estimates. About 1250 estimators supply the respective data for about 4000 estimated districts (on the territory of the central Serbia and Vojvodina), which are as a rule corresponding to cadastre communities. Mainly statistical estimators are the successful agricultural producers who are well familiar with local developments. In their activities, these statistical estimators rely on recent cadastre data, the estimates of previous years, the information from agricultural producers and professionals, their own observations and on other sources.

Coverage

Since the statistics of land areas and yields are based on the overall cadastre, the data comprise the total funds and the production of agricultural holdings, as well as other production (non-agricultural households, gardens in urban areas, etc.)

Definitions

Agricultural areas are all land areas used for agricultural production, i.e. arable land, pastures, fishponds, reed tracts and ponds.

Arable areas are the land areas used for field crop production. Here also included is the land that is uncultivated, left 'to recover', as well as vine and fruit-tree nurseries and clover and alfalfa fields. However this publication does not include the data on uncultivated land areas and nurseries, which is the difference to 'arable fields and gardens – total'.

Yielding fruit trees and vines are those that may give yields, regardless the fact whether actually they gave yields or not.

More detailed methodological explanations of the crop production statistics are found in the Methodological papers, volume no 211, published by the FSO.

LIVESTOCK BREEDING

Sources and methods of data collection

The data on the number of livestock in agricultural enterprises and cooperatives are collected in the regular Annual survey of livestock breeding, PO-51-2a and in the annual Livestock sample survey, PO-51-2; the data are compiled relative to private agricultural holdings and households. The survey sample is a two-stage stratified sample and it covers about 1% holdings.

Coverage

The data cover the livestock fund in agricultural organizations, private agricultural holdings and households.

More detailed methodological explanations about the collection of data on livestock are presented in the Methodological papers, volume no 358, published by the FSO and in the publication of the SORS – Methods and standards, volume no 11.

FORESTRY

Sources and methods of data collection

The data of forestry statistics are collected in regular annual surveys and are based on the existing programs and records of forests holding and management. ŠUM-21, the annual survey of the exploitation of public forests, ŠUM-23, the annual survey of private forests exploitation and ŠUM-41, the annual report on forestation and forests growing - are all provided by Srbijašume, the public forests administration company, as well as by other organizations in charge of forests management (national parks, cooperatives, hunting organizations, etc.)

Forests felling relates to the gross mass of felled timber, measured at stumps.

Technical wood is the wood that is due to its physical and technical properties envisaged for technical and industrial purposes.

CONSTRUCTION

Sources and methods of data collection

The data on the value of executed construction works, on the volume and the structure of the housing industry were collected by regular annual surveys: the Annual survey of construction works (GRADJ-11) and the Annual survey of private dwelling constructions (GRADJ-11a), regardless the time when the works started and whether they are completed in the respective time (year) of survey.

The data on the demolished dwellings and the dwellings adapted into business premises are collected in the Annual survey of demolished dwelling constructions and adapted business premises (GRADJ-71).

The annual survey of construction works comprises the constructions of all ownership kinds, i.e. the constructions executed by various companies (construction, craft service and other companies and individual entrepreneurs). The data relates to the place of construction executions, regardless the contractor's origin.

The survey of dwelling constructions pulled down and business premises adapted includes all dwelling and other constructions with one or several flats that were pulled down.

Definitions

As a statistical concept, the term construction anticipates the constructions related to the ground (underground and over ground constructions and hydro-technical structures /waterworks/ as well), i.e. the construction works executed, made of construction materials, readymade items and implant (built-in) parts. In this respect, the preparation of soil, sowing or planting, etc. for agricultural purposes are not regarded as construction works.

The term new construction anticipates the erection of a new construction on the ground where no construction existed, or on sites where constructions had existed once and were moved out.

New constructions are also re-erections, from the very grounds, of the constructions that were completely demolished due to force majeure, war, etc. or that as irreparably decayed were pulled down.

A new road or railway construction is a completely executed sub-construction or permanent way with full cut-through of a new track, or with the old track partly used while the sub-construction is completely changed.

Dwelling is any residential construction unit for habitation purposes, consisting of one or several rooms, with respective accompanying premises (kitchen, pantry, lobby, bathroom, toilet, etc.) or without accompanying premises, and with one or several separate entrances from the corridor, staircase, yard or street.

However, the coverage of private households rendering accommodation (boarding) services may not be considered as full since certain households provide accommodation (boarding) services without having obtained license from the respective local government bodies and therefore are not included by the survey. Also, some households do not provide data for all tourist customers.

Definitions

UNDERDEVELOPED MUNICIPALITIES

Pursuant to the criteria envisaged by the Act on underdeveloped regions of the Republic of Serbia for the time up to 2005 (Official gazette RS, no 53/95) a number of the municipalities of Serbia were categorized as underdeveloped municipalities (Articles 2 and 3).

Therefore, in the chapter "Indicators of municipality development", the SORS provides for the data on the size, development level and certain aspects of consumption for the three groups of Serbian municipalities: underdeveloped, extremely undeveloped and other. The above mentioned Act was used as the criteria for the categorization.
